SUSPICIOUS INCIDENT LEADS TO NARCOTIC ARREST

On Monday evening, The Orleans Police Department had received a call about some suspicious activity in the area of the bike path and Old Colony way area. Officer Andrew McLaughlin began investigating the area on foot, and discovered several persons off the trail engaging in the transfer of illegal narcotics. Arrested was Yanik Michel, 19 of Orleans. Michel's was in possession of a large amount of Percocets and cash. He was arraigned in Orleans District court on Tuesday on Possession with intent to distribute class B, and released on personal recognizance.

If anyone has any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Detective Bureau.
