BOARD OF SELECTMEN

TOWN
ADMINISTRATOR

CHARGE TO 4TH OF JULY FIREWORKS & PARADE COMMITTEE

The 4th of July Committee shall consist of 7 regular and 3 associate members appointed by the Board of Selectmen.

The general charge of the Committee shall be to plan, organize and oversee, the annual fourth of July parade and fireworks.

To carry out its charge, the Committee shall complete the following:

1. Work with the Friends of the Fourth of July and Chamber of Commerce and other community civic groups to promote active participation in the celebration.
2. Jointly decide on the dates of the Fireworks display and identify options for a shore or barge-based fireworks display.
3. Coordinate with fire, police, public works and parks departments to ensure a safe celebration including necessary fencing, signage, and clean up.
4. Develop and solicit proposals for engaging bands and a fireworks display.
5. Identify other possible fund raising options that may be available to offset the cost to the Town.

The Committee shall operate under the provision of the Open Meeting Law, meet as necessary at the Orleans Town Hall and file its agendas and minutes with the Town Clerk.
